

Florida Library Association 2010 Annual Conference

APRIL 7-9, 2010
Rosen Plaza Hotel
Orlando, Florida

Welcome to Orlando

Thank you Magdalena Contreras, Graphic Artist,
Lake County Information Outreach for the 2010 conference logo.

CONFERENCE REGISTRATION

- Online registration is quick and easy through the FLA web site conference page: www.flalib.org/conference_2010.php
- Mail or fax registration accepted: download the registration form available on the FLA conference page
- Charge cards, checks and purchase orders accepted
- Registrants using Organizational Member pre-paid registrations must register online; be sure to secure necessary approval from your library administration before registering

CONFERENCE HOTEL INFORMATION

Rosen Plaza Hotel Orlando is located on the world famous International Drive within walking distance to the newly renovated Pointe Orlando entertainment complex. Pointe Orlando is an open-air shopping, dining and entertainment complex. More than 40 specialty retailers, delicious restaurants, and exciting entertainment create a vibrant, eclectic experience. With towering palm trees, shaded areas, and fountains, you will enjoy the tropical and relaxing feel of Pointe Orlando.

A perfect Orlando location next to the Orange County Convention Center makes the Rosen Plaza Hotel in Orlando Florida an ideal headquarters. Impressive meeting capabilities combine with resort-style luxury minutes from all of Orlando's famous theme parks. Conference attendees enjoy a productive business environment and a superb Orlando Florida vacation opportunity.

FLA Conference rate, standard room: $109.00 (single or double) plus tax
if reserved by Monday, March 15, 2010

Rate is also available three days before and three days after conference. Hotel requires 72 hours notice of cancellation.

- Complimentary self-parking for attendees
- Internet in guest rooms - $6.95 per day or $20.00 for length of stay

To Reserve a Room

Reservations can be made directly with ROSEN PLAZA HOTEL by calling toll-free 1-800-627-8258. Request the group rate for FLORIDA LIBRARY ASSOCIATION. Click Here for Internet reservations for hotel.

Register Online

Register by Mail or Fax
- download form

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 7

All events will be held at the Rosen Plaza Hotel unless otherwise indicated.

9:00 AM – 12:00 NOON

SEFLIN Connect Training (by invitation)

Location: Valencia Community College, West Campus, 6-220 (Library Building), 1800 S. Kirkman Rd., Orlando

Speaker: Charles Mayberry, Southeast Florida Library

Information Network

Training for FLA Executive Board and Committee Leadership in use of the online meeting software.

9:00 AM – 10:00 AM

Gather Round: Conference Program Topics Round Tables

Speakers: Jae Bass, Technical Services Administrator, St. Johns County Public Library; Michael Bryan, Director, Seminole Community Library; Elizabeth Curry, Public Services Division Director, Alachua County Library District; Danny Hales, Director, Suwannee River Regional Library System; Dave McMurrin, North Area Director, Brevard County Libraries; Kaya van Beynen, Reference Librarian and Patricia Pettijohn, Head of Collection and Technical Services, Nelson Poynter Library, University of South Florida – St. Petersburg
A cast of library stars leads round table discussions on topics and programs coming up in the 2010 conference.

Orientation for New FLA Members

Speakers: Wendy Breeden, Director, Lake County Public Resources Department and FLA President; John Callahan, Director, Palm Beach County Library System and FLA Vice-President/President Elect; Elana Karshmer, Instruction Program & Information Literacy Librarian, Saint Leo University and NMRT Leader; Matthew Knight, Librarian, St. Petersburg Public Library and NMRT Vice-Leader

New FLA members will want to attend this session for an overview of the Association and how to get involved – and members who have been around for a while are welcome to enjoy a refresher course.

Sponsored by the New Members Round Table Member Group

Tagging Your World

Speaker: Jenny Levine, Internet Development Specialist & Strategy Guide, American Library Association and author of The Shifted Librarian blog

Jenny Levine, expert in emerging technologies and their role in libraries, discusses social tagging and folksonomies. Learn more about the strengths and weaknesses, advantages and disadvantages of using tagging in a library, and how it can increase the library's presence while helping customers locate information more easily.

10:00 am – 10:15 am | Break

10:15 AM – 11:45 AM

Building a First Year Information Literacy Experience

Speakers: Jacalyn Bryan, Reference & Instructional Services Librarian and Elana Karshmer, Instruction Program & Information Literacy Librarian, Saint Leo University
Combining ACRL traditional information literacy practices and Mid-Continent Research for Education and Learning (McREL) practices results in innovative instruction for first-year students. Applications and implementation issues will be presented. If you enjoyed the Poster Session about this last year, you will want to catch this program.

Sponsored by Academic Libraries Member Group/FACRL

“What Not to Wear, Say, Do...Interview and Job Application Strategies in a Tight Job Market”

Speakers: Deborah Robinson, Director of Libraries, St. Petersburg College; Tracy Ann Elliott, Director, State College of Florida Libraries, Manatee-Bradenton; Derrie Perez, Assistant Professor, SLIS, University of South Florida; Gene Coppola, Director, Palm Harbor Library

A panel of academic and public librarians will describe do's and don'ts of the job search process to impress or turn off employers. Topics include: presenting yourself during the application process; preparing for interviews; selling yourself to the committee; and learning about the organization through interviewing. Speakers will have special tips for recent grads and suggestions for that extra special something for everyone.

Sponsored by Library Personnel Recruitment Committee, Academic Libraries Member Group/FACRL and Black Caucus Member Group

Performers Showcase

Check out the talent! Performers from around the state present brief examples of their work as a preview of what they offer for library programs. Try before you buy! Enjoy excerpts of programs available for library bookings.

Libraries and Second Life

Speakers: Susan Acampora, Professor/Systems Librarian, College of New Rochelle; Suzi Holler, Librarian/Trainer, Central Florida Library Cooperative; Lisa Manners, Branch Library Manager II, Broward County Library

Participate in an onsite and remote experience simultaneously with a speaker presenting to you while in Second Life as well as speakers in the room – a unique collaboration between the real and the virtual. Find out about getting started in Second Life and how libraries are using this social networking tool with their customers.

11:45 am – 1:30 pm | Lunch, Committee and Member Group Meetings

1:30 - 3:00 PM

Art of Strategic Influence

Speaker: Elaina Norlin, Director, African American Research Library and Cultural Center, Broward County Library

Learn to conquer your fear of speaking in public and how to advocate effectively for your library whether persuading, educating or informing. Participants will identify natural persuasion styles and positive steps to gain influence, credibility and confidence during high level meetings.

Sponsored by Black Caucus Member Group

Ask A Librarian User Forum & Research Report

Speakers: Traci Avet, Virtual Reference Coordinator and Diana Silveira, Virtual Reference Manager, Tampa Bay Library Consortium

This forum will provide Ask A Librarian participants with an opportunity to learn more about this statewide online service. Attendees will hear about innovative methods and technologies in development for the coming year and will have an opportunity for input into development of the service.

The Library Partnership – Building Community through E-government

Speakers: Sunem Beaton-Garcia, Reference Librarian, Broward College; Julio Granda, Jr., Urban Affairs Librarian, Urban Affairs Department, Miami-Dade Public Library System; Sol M. Hirsch, Director, Alachua County Library District; Kathleen de la Peña McCook, Distinguished University Professor, SLIS, University of South Florida; Shawn Alamida, Partnership for Strong Families; Maria Almaguer Treadwell, Assistant Director-East Coast, SLIS, University of South Florida; Ester Tibbs, Administrator for Circuits 3 and 8, Florida Department of Children and Families

Alachua County Library District and social service agencies in the area are partnering to provide a full service library with more than 25 community agencies bringing services and programs into the library. This “neighborhood center” model will be presented and methods for engaging community agencies in a collaborative planning process explained. A panel of people engaged in partnerships in other areas of the state will react and also discuss their own innovative efforts.

Teen Spaces

Speaker: Kimberly Bolan Cullin, Kimberly Bolan & Associates, Adjunct Professor at Buffalo’s School of Informatics and WebJunction Community Editor

Hear the well known consultant and author of the book on designing and renovating areas for teens, Teen Spaces: the Step-by-Step Library Makeover. This specialist in youth servicers, a former public library manager and facilities planner, has a second edition of her book coming out soon. Learn what’s happening in library teen areas around the country.

3:00 – 3:15 pm | Break

3:15 – 4:45 PM

Someone’s Not Going to Like It: Building Inclusive Collections, Defending Challenged Materials and Other Intellectual Freedom Issues

Speakers: Kerri Bottorff, Children’s Librarian, Lake County Library System; Cora Dunkley, Associate Professor, SLIS, University of South Florida; Laura Minor, Senior Librarian, Jacksonville Public Library; Barbara J. Morse, Director, Leesburg Public Library; Jackie Padilla, Youth Program Assistant, Orange County Library System; Barbara Pickell, Library Director, Clearwater Public Library

How do you support your library when the right to read is questioned? A panel of speakers will discuss best practices when dealing with book challenges, censorship and self-censorship issues in settings involving children and young adults.

Sponsored by the FLA Intellectual Freedom Committee and the GLBT Member Group

Case Study: Three-way Joint-use Library

Speakers: Min Tong, Reference/Instruction Librarian, South Lake Regional Campus, University of Central Florida; Tiana Emsley-Dawoodje, Reference/Instruction Librarian, Lake-Sumter Community College, South Lake Campus; Caryl Harris, Head of Reference, Lake County Cooper Memorial Public Library

The speakers represent one of the few joint-use libraries in the U.S. that includes three partners: two academic libraries as well as a public library. They will provide examples of cooperative endeavors, including a shared building, collection and staff and will offer advice on the benefits as well as challenges in planning and implementation.

Sponsored by Academic Libraries Member Group/FACRL

3:15 PM – 4:45 PM CONTINUED

FACRL & FLA Academic Member Group Board Meeting

This session is the regular meeting of the board of directors of the Association of Colleges and Research Libraries, Florida Chapter (FACRL). FACRL is also a member group within FLA, representing the interests and concerns of Florida's academic library community. All interested persons are welcome to attend.

Jumping on the Twitter Bandwagon: Fad or Information Revolution?

Speakers: Susan Ariew, Academic Services Librarian for Education, University of South Florida Libraries; Gina Clifford, Web Administrator, University of South Florida; Britta Krabill, Reference Librarian, West Palm Beach Public Library; Catherine Lavalée-Welch, Associate Librarian, University of South Florida Polytechnic Library

Remember Twitter's role in the Iran election protests in June, 2009? Pretty vital stuff! The panel will describe Twitter, its tools and universe. The program will also highlight applications in higher education and in promoting library services while integrating Twitter with your online presence.

Sponsored by Academic Libraries Member Group/FACRL

5:15 – 6:30 PM

Meet the Exhibitors Reception

Mingle with conference exhibitors while enjoying light refreshments and hands-on crafts by DiVitto Kelly of Pâpier Maché Sculpture, Workshops and Educational Design.

6:30 – 8:00 PM

Receptions:

University of South Florida, School of Library and Information Services

Florida State University, College of Communication & Information, School of Library & Information Studies

8:15 AM – 9:00 AM

Mystery Writers of Florida Breakfast

The Florida chapter of Mystery Writers of America invite you to breakfast where you can meet informally with published mystery authors who live in and/or write about Florida. Limited seating. Request a complimentary ticket with conference registration.

9:00 AM – 10:30 AM

First General Session

Speakers: Keith Michael Fiels, Executive Director, American Library Association and Helen Blowers, Creator of Learning 2.0: 23 Things

10:30 – 11:00 am | Refreshment Break in Exhibit Hall

Exhibit Hall Opens 10:30 AM - 5:00 PM

Vendor booths, Silent Auction, books signing by mystery book authors, poster sessions

Carts on the Move: Book Cart Drill Team Competition

Teams from all types of libraries are invited to compete for fun and prizes! Don your costumes, decorate those carts and start practicing. Contact Sherry Millington, smilling@nefin.org to bring a team.

11:00 AM – 12:00 PM

The Public Library is Your Ticket to – Imagine the Possibilities

Speakers: Stacie Bucher, Marketing Communications Manager and Keith McLaughlin, Assistant Director, Partnerships & Communication, Jacksonville Public Library

Hear how Jacksonville Public Library developed an exciting public awareness campaign aimed at both users and non-users. The central theme, supported by beautiful graphics, was the library card as a ticket to endless possibilities. Tactics included donated advertising, social media, community outreach and internal communication.

Sponsored by Black Caucus Member Group

Florida and the Mystery Novel

Speakers: Authors from Mystery Writers of America, including Deborah Sharp, James O. Born, Julie Compton, Nancy Cohen, Neil Plakcy and Sharon Potts

A panel of mystery authors who live in Florida or write mysteries set in the Sunshine State will discuss how Florida and its people are represented in the mystery genre.

Unmediated Borrowing and Single Bibliographic Record for SUS Libraries

Speaker: Caroline Reed, Interim Director of Public Services, Jane Bancroft Cook Library, New College of Florida; Jennifer Kuntz, LMS Field Specialist for Public Services, and Jean Phillips, Manager for Aleph Services, Florida Center for Library Automation

This session is the annual meeting of the State University Libraries Member Group and will feature a panel discussion by representatives from the Unmediated Borrowing Task Force. An update of activities by the Florida Center for Library Automation and reports from each of the Statewide Committees of the Council of State University Libraries will also be presented.

Sponsored by Academic Libraries Member Group/FACRL and State University Libraries Member Group

Sunshine State Library Leadership Institute Chat with Helene Blowers (by invitation only)

Speaker: Jill Canono, Leadership Development Consultant, State Library & Archives of Florida

This discussion session is for invited participants, mentors and others involved in the Sunshine State Library Leadership Institute.

11:00 am – 1:00 pm

Friends, Foundations and Boards Awards Luncheon and Business Meeting (Ticketed Event)

Sponsored by Friends, Foundations and Boards Member Group

12:00 – 1:30 pm | Lunch on your own

Mystery Author Book Signing in Exhibit Hall
Committee Meetings/Member Group Meetings

1:30 PM – 2:30 PM

E-media in Academic Libraries & LINCC Update

Speakers: Richard Madaus, Executive Director, College Center for Library Automation

This session looks at today's e-media environment and how academic libraries and organizations are adapting their services to make these resources as valuable – and discoverable – as traditional book collections. It also includes an overview of new and coming enhancements to the Library Information Network for Community Colleges (LINCC).

Sponsored by Academic Libraries Member Group/FACRL

1:30 PM – 2:30 PM CONTINUED

This Book is Overdue

Speaker: Marilyn Johnson, Author

Let Marilyn Johnson entertain and delight you with her celebration of libraries and librarians. Author of THIS BOOK IS OVERDUE!: How Librarians and Cybrarians

Can Save Us All, she upends the stereotypes to show that contemporary librarians come in a variety of contemporary disguises.

Sponsored by the Friends, Foundations & Boards Member Group

Storytelling Outside the Face

Speaker: Christie Koontz, Associate Professor in Information Studies, Florida State University School of Library & Information Studies

See and hear about digital storytelling of fables and fiction, which can enrich library customers of all ages and experiences. Dr. Koontz is a well known storyteller so prepare to be entertained as well as informed.

Building New Baccalaureate Core Collections

Speakers: Donna Kelly and Betty Jo Gaston, Baccalaureate Librarians, St. Petersburg College

Solutions for building new subject collections to support the many new Florida State College baccalaureate programs will be provided, including handling the need for speedy acquisitions for Curriculum & Materials Collections supporting Education programs. Accreditation and other external factors will be addressed, too.

Sponsored by Academic Libraries Member Group/FACRL

2:30 – 3:00 pm | Refreshment Break in Exhibit Hall Committee Meetings

3:00 – 4:00 PM

Lightning Talks: Best ILS Practices & Projects

Speakers: Contact organizer Chip Halvorsen at chelvorsen@aclib.us to be a part of this program.

This fast-paced program will feature “Lightning Talks,” five-minute presentations by multiple practitioners who work directly with all types of integrated library systems. The moderated discussion will feature audience participation in sharing innovative methods, trouble-shooting, time-saving and problem solving approaches.

Sponsored by SirsiDynix Users Member Group

Mentoring Software Savvy Staff

Speakers: Lynda Citro, Librarian Supervisor, Englewood-Charlotte Library and Alison Layne, Librarian Supervisor, Port Charlotte Library, Charlotte County Library System

A year of evaluating and mentoring library staff members’ software competencies is described, including developing a framework of expectations for all levels of staff, developing a skills survey tool, planning remedial action and classes, and post-training surveying of staff, supervisors, and peers.

Becoming an ACRL Legislative Advocate

Speakers: Marilyn Ochoa, Assistant Head, Education Library, University of Florida; Jonathan Miller, Director, Olin Library, Rollins College

Florida has 25 Congressional Districts and only three Association of College & Research Librarians (ACRL) Advocates. ACRL plans to have an advocate in every district by 2014. Two ACRL Legislative Advocates describe how to join them in this role and what it entails. Tips to becoming a better advocate for your library will also be presented.

Sponsored by Academic Libraries Member Group/FACRL

50th Anniversary of Desegregation at the University of Florida in Second Life

Speakers: Stacey Ewing, Assistant University Librarian/InfoCommons Librarian and Missy Shoop, University Librarian/Instruction & Outreach Librarian, University of Florida, Smathers Library West

Experience a virtually simulated bus in Second Life to understand the Civil Rights Era, stopping at bus stops with a narrated timeline to learn about desegregation at the University of Florida, in Florida, and in America.

Sponsored by Academic Libraries Member Group/FACRL and Black Caucus Member Group

4:15 – 5:15 PM

Zines, Records and Rock N’ Roll: Alternative Media in Libraries

Speakers: Andrew Coulon and Josh Jubinsky, Librarian Associate Seniors, Matthew Moyer, Librarian, and Jessica Whittington, Customer Service Associate II, Jacksonville Public Library

A panel of hands-on practitioners will discuss marketing to 20 to 40 year olds through alternative media. Zine collections open new doors into the community!

4:15 PM – 5:15 PM CONTINUED

Managing Those Tough Personnel Issues

Speaker: Jeanine Nelson, Employee Services Specialist, Employee Services and Quality Improvement Dept., Lake County, FL

Layoffs? Performance appraisals? Employee discipline issues? An experienced HR professional will provide information and advice for managers and supervisors in this discussion of human resources methods and best practices.

Florida Book Award 2009 Winning Authors Discuss Their Books

Speaker: Wayne A. Wiegand, Director, Florida Book Awards, Florida State University

Five authors, each a winner of a 2009 Florida Book Award, will discuss their award-winning works.

To Use Print Serials or Not to Use Print Serials: That Is the Survey(Monkey)

Speaker: Jared Hoppenfeld, Business Librarian, West Campus Libraries, Texas A & M University Libraries

SurveyMonkey was the online tool used to decide which print titles stay and which go or are replaced with electronic resources at the University of South Florida, Tampa Campus. Hear how the review was conducted and experience a SurveyMonkey demonstration with analysis of results using Excel.

Sponsored by Academic Libraries Member Group/FACRL

5:30 – 7:00 pm

President's Reception, Silent Auction and FBA Author Book Signing

Join other conference attendees for entertainment, refreshments, socializing and an opportunity to get personally signed copies of Florida Book Award winning books by some of your favorite Florida authors. Be sure to bid on Silent Auction items to benefit FLA's Scholarship Fund.

7:15 – 9:30 pm | Florida Book Awards Banquet

Enjoy a literary evening and celebrate with medal-winning authors of the 4th annual Florida Book Awards competition. (Ticketed event)

8:00 – 11:00 am | Exhibits Open

8:00 – 8:30 am | Coffee Klatch in Exhibit Hall

8:00 – 10:15 am | Technology Petting Zoo in Exhibit Hall

8:30 – 9:45 AM

Continuing Quality Library Services in Times of Budget and Staff Reductions

Speaker: Andrew Sanderbeck, Managing Partner, People-Connect Institute

Reductions in budget and staff coupled with increases in use and demand for services are affecting libraries everywhere. Gain tools to enable you to do more with less while maintaining customer service and helping staff focus on tasks and goals. Topics include cross functional service delivery, simplifying processes and improving employee morale and mutual respect.

Libraries Going Green

Speakers: Kathryn Miller, Author and Assistant Vice President for Academic Resources, Argosy University; Ward Friszolowski, Executive Vice President and Phil Trezza, AIA and LEED Accredited Professional, Harvard Jolly, Inc.

Your library can be a leader in the “green” movement in your community. Miller, author of the forthcoming book, Public Libraries Going Green and two architects with extensive library experience will discuss practical, environmentally-friendly concepts any Florida library can implement.

Voices from the Field: Research Reports on Information Literacy & Scholarly Communication

Speakers: Melissa Gross, Professor and Don Latham, Associate Professor, Florida State University School of Library and Information Studies; Aysegul Kapucu, Reference Librarian, University of Central Florida Libraries

Results of two innovative research projects will be reported. The first is about information literacy needs of first year students and the second investigated social networking tools and scholarly communication.

Sponsored by Academic Libraries Member Group/FACRL

9:45 – 10:15 am | Break in the Exhibits with Silent Auction Finale

10:15 – 11:15 AM

Embedded Librarians: Collaboration and Learning Communities

Speaker: Steve Voguitt, Assistant Professor, Laura Mongiovi, Assistant Professor and Katherine H. Owens, Reference & Instruction Librarian, Flagler College

Learning Communities link classes from different disciplines around a common theme and bring a librarian into the classroom. Learn from a team of faculty and librarian collaborators as they share concerns and feelings about their experiences in working together to create and shape curriculum.

Sponsored by Academic Libraries Member Group/FACRL and Black Caucus Member Group

Delivering Library Services through Partnerships with Other Local Government Departments

Speakers: Vera Gubnitskaia, Youth Services Manager and Tammy Erikstrup, Youth Services Assistant Manager, Orange County Library System; Taryn Rutkovitz, Regional Center Manager, Englewood Neighborhood Center, City of Orlando Families, Parks and Recreation Department

Partners in an innovative, mobile service for 3rd through 5th graders and teens describe this service that brought skill building, test preparation, college preparation, and career orientation sessions to seven community centers. Presenters will teach you to set up successful programs on these topics as well as how to find key government agencies and individuals in the community to be library partners.

Sponsored by Black Caucus Member Group

President's Program: Chat with Judi Ring, Florida's State Librarian

Speaker: Judith Ring, State Librarian of Florida, State Library & Archives of Florida, Department of State

FLA President Wendy Breeden has arranged for those from libraries of all types to speak directly with the State Librarian of Florida. Hear about the programs and services of the State Library and Archives of Florida as well as issues and trends facing Florida's libraries.

10:15 – 11:15 AM CONTINUED

Video Podcasting: An Innovative Way to Instruct Library

Customers

Speakers: Kiersten Cox, Instructor and Julius Fleschner, Graduate Teaching Assistant, School of Library and Information Science, University of South Florida

Learn to use podcasts and iTunes to reach library patrons and offer library instruction in a fun and innovative way. iPods and smartphones are the hot communication tools – learn to take the library to users on their favorite media.

Sponsored by Academic Libraries Member Group/FACRL

Register Online

11:00 am – Exhibits close

11:30 – 1:30 pm | Second General Session

Awards Luncheon and Annual Meeting

Speaker: Bill Belleville, Florida environmental writer, documentary film producer and author of Rediscovering Rawlings, a River and Time and Losing It All to Sprawl: How Progress Ate My

Cracker Landscape

1:45 – 4:00 pm | FLA Executive Board Meeting

2010 Annual Florida Library Association
 Conference & Exhibits
 April 7-9, 2010
 Orlando, Florida
 Attendee Registration Form

Register online at <http://cmc-associates.com/2010-fla.html>

Organization: _____
 Name: _____
 Address: _____
 City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____
 Telephone: _____ Fax: _____
 Email: _____

Please print clearly. All communication will come through email.

Registration – Early Registration valid through February 1, 2010

Member Registration	Early	Late	Non-Member Registration	Early	Late
Full Conference	<input type="checkbox"/> $115	<input type="checkbox"/> $125	Full Conference	<input type="checkbox"/> $185	<input type="checkbox"/> $205
Single Day	<input type="checkbox"/> $80	<input type="checkbox"/> $90	Single Day	<input type="checkbox"/> $150	<input type="checkbox"/> $160
Library Supporter	<input type="checkbox"/> $40	<input type="checkbox"/> $50	Library Supporter	<input type="checkbox"/> $50	<input type="checkbox"/> $60
Exhibit Hall Only	<input type="checkbox"/> $25	<input type="checkbox"/> $35	Exhibit Hall Only	<input type="checkbox"/> $35	<input type="checkbox"/> $45
Student - Full	<input type="checkbox"/> $50		Student – 1 Day	<input type="checkbox"/> $30
Friends Day	<input type="checkbox"/> $40
Friends, Foundation & Board Luncheon & Awards – Thursday, April 8				<input type="checkbox"/> $30
Florida Book Awards Banquet – Thursday, April 8		<input type="checkbox"/> $50 Beef	<input type="checkbox"/> $45 Chicken	<input type="checkbox"/> $40 Vegetarian
Will You Attend the Mystery Writers' Breakfast?		<input type="checkbox"/> Yes	<input type="checkbox"/> No

Grand Total: $ _____

I agree to pay the above amount for the 2010 Florida Library Association Annual Conference

Method of Payment - Please circle one: Visa Mastercard American Express Check

I authorize CMC & Associates to charge my credit card for the above amount.

Credit Card Number: _____ Exp Date: _____

Name as it appears on the card: _____

Signature: _____ Email of cardholder: _____

Conference Registration and Information – Mail or fax your form to:
 CMC & Associates
 2713 Blairstone Lane
 Tallahassee, Florida 32301
 850-224-7775 – phone 850-224-7704 – fax

Florida Library Association 2010 Annual Conference

April 7-9, 2010

Rosen Plaza Hotel

