

Like to Read?

Join the Book Club

During the Winter quarter we will be discussing
Jodi Picoult's Keeping Faith

Keeping Faith is about a little girl who, in the wake of a family crisis, develops an imaginary friend who turns out to be God. And female. In this chapter, Faith and her mother Mariah realize that their lives are about to change: a cult takes up residence on the front lawn to uphold Faith as the new Messiah; and a Winnebago arrives bearing the infamous Ian Fletcher, an atheist with a television pulpit, who's come to prove that Faith is a hoax. But then she works a miracle...

Read the eBook through NetLibrary at:

- Go to <http://portal.rasmussen.edu>
- Click- "Library Resources" link
- Click—"Books/Catalogs" link
- Select NetLibrary
- Search for Picoult
- Click View this eBook

Check out a copy at the Pasco County Campus library. Bring your Student ID.

More information and videos available at: <http://www.jodipicoult.com>

"Picoult does a spectacular job weaving in all sorts of spiritual elements. . . . The story makes you wonder about God. And that's a rare moment in modern fiction." —USA Today

JODI
PICOULT

New York Times Bestselling Author of My Sister's Keeper and The Pact

Date: March 1, 2010

Time: 5:15pm

And: Join the online discussion at:
<http://librarything.com>

Create an account & join the discussion group at RasmussenCollegeReads

Library
System