

Scam Alert: Bogus Hotel Room Reservations

It has been brought to FLA's attention that a third-party housing company, Exhibition Housing Services, has made contact with some FLA attendees and exhibitors trying to get them to book their 2012 FLA Conference hotel rooms through their service.

PLEASE NOTE: Exhibition Housing Services is not affiliated in any way with FLA or the Wyndham Orlando Resort.

FLA has a room block reserved for FLA Conference participants at the Wyndham Orlando Resort. All participants are encouraged to book directly through the Wyndham and within the established FLA block available at http://www.flalib.org/conference_2012_hotel_info.php.

Third-party companies, such as Exhibition Housing Services, sometimes promise rooms in hotels where they do not actually have rooms. There is the potential to be left without a room and to lose money paid in advance.

If you have made a reservation through this company, or have questions or concerns, contact FLA's Meeting Manager Sharon Gray, CMP at 850-224-6222 or via email at aplantomeet@earthlink.net.
