The Florida Library Association will host its Third Annual Performers' Showcase during the April 18 - 20, 2012 FLA Annual Conference. The Performers' Showcase provides a forum for performers, entertainers and educational speakers/presenters to demonstrate their talents to library managers and staff serving all ages of the public who are looking for quality programming.

Showcase Dates and Location

- Wyndham Orlando Resort, 8001 International Drive, Orlando, FL
- Thursday, April 19, Lime Room
- Morning session- 10:30 a.m. AM – 12 Noon, Afternoon session – 1:00 PM - 2:00 PM
- A total of 14 performers will be chosen; 8 for the morning session and 5 for the afternoon session.

How To Participate

Check Option 1 on the application:

Mail a $25 check with your application for your advertisement in the 2012 Performers' Guide. You will also be considered for a chance to present an eight minute routine suitable for children, teenagers and/or adults during the conference. Applicants will be informed by March 16, 2012 regarding whether their application to perform is accepted. The $100.00 is payable if you receive notice of acceptance and includes:

- Eight minutes of performance time (performances exceeding the eight minute limit will be politely interrupted)
- Tabletop on April 19 for your display materials and which you can use as meeting spot to chat with conference attendees from 10 a.m. – 3 p.m.

OR check Option 2 on the application:

If you are not interested in applying to perform at the FLA Performers' Showcase, you can participate by including your contact and other information in the 2012 Performers' Guide. A check for $25 is due with your application. The Guide will be given to audience members at the Performers' Showcase. It will also be available on the FLA web site for one year.

You might also consider an Exhibit Booth at the 2012 FLA Conference. Further information about exhibiting will be available on the FLA web site at http://www.flalib.org/conference\_2012 in late November.
