

Maria Chavez-Hernandez “Libraries Change Peoples’ Lives” Award

Background:

Dr. Chavez-Hernandez received her PhD in Library Science and Information Studies from Florida State University in 1991. She was responsible for a large body of work focusing on Library and Information Services in the Caribbean region, and provided many resources and programming on the specific library and information needs of Latin American immigrants and their families.

Dr. Chavez-Hernandez was also an active member of FLA, ALA, the Association of Library and Information Science Education (ALISE), the National Education Association (NEA), and REFORMA (National Association to Promote Library Services to Latinos and the Spanish Speaking). Dr. Chavez-Hernandez passed away in 2008.

The Florida Library Association created this award to honor the memory of Dr. Chavez-Hernandez and to perpetuate the dynamic spirit of her work in expanding the opportunities of information access to under-served and immigrant populations.

Eligibility:

This award is open to all types of libraries, library organizations, and library associations in the state. The recognized service or program must have been in place for at least two calendar years and may serve either adults, or adults and children. All types of programs and services may be nominated. Both nominator(s) and nominee must be current members of the Florida Library Association.

Criteria:

An individual library employee or group of employees must have made a demonstrably positive and big difference in the lives of Florida’s library users. Of special focus are programs and services that provide outreach to immigrant and/or under-served populations.

Has the service or program been in place for at least two calendar years? Yes No

Who does the service or program serve? Adults Adults and children

	4	3	2	1
Made a demonstrably positive and big difference in the lives of Florida's library users	Extensive evidence that the program or service has made a significant demonstrably positive and big difference in the lives of Florida's library users.	[Intentionally left blank]	Some evidence that the program or service has made a positive difference in the lives of Florida's library users.	Little or no evidence that the program or service has made a difference in the lives of Florida's library users.
Programs or services provide outreach to immigrant and/or under-served populations	Program or service provides significant and growing outreach to immigrant and under-served populations.	Program or service primarily serves immigrant and/or under-served populations.	Program or service potentially serves immigrant and/or under-served populations.	Little or no evidence that the program or service provides some outreach to immigrant and under-served populations.